

Photographers Trail Notes Contributing Partners Agreement

Photographers Trail Notes welcomes the opportunity to partner with others to help expand the geographic and creative footprint of the website while providing exposure and recognition (links to personal websites, promoting events and workshops) to other photographers which have a passion for landscape photography. It is important that contributing partners share similar values, care and conservation of the locations, quality standards, integrity and goals as Photographers Trail Notes.

License / Work for Hire

Compensation for providing a location summary would represent a license / work for hire contract and would transfer all rights of content and location summary to Photographers Trail Notes. However, the contributing partner would always retain copyright of any and all images provided along with location information.

Trial Period

Contributing partners would have a 90-day trial period where either party can choose to terminate the partnership. If the contributing partner terminates prior to the end of the trial period, any monetary compensation paid would need to be returned to Photographers Trail Notes.

Ownership

Contributing partners would not have any rights or claims to any ownership / share or any revenues/profits in Photographers Trail Notes now or in the future.

Unless specifically noted and agreed to in advance by Photographers Trail Notes, any edits, suggestions, concepts, enhancements, promotion or any other work done for or on behalf of the website would not constitute any share, stake or ownership in Photographers Trail Notes or any future revenues/profits.

Promoting Role as Contributing Partner

Contributing partners would be granted rights to promote their role as contributing partner and to publish a link to the Photographers Trail Notes website on their web and/or social media sites.

Submit A Location for Consideration

To be considered as a contributing partner submit an image, with a brief summary and trail difficulty of the location(s) along with a signed copy of this document for review. Photographers Trail Notes has discretion in determining which locations are chosen for the website.

If you accept the terms of this agreement please sign and return to Photographers Trail Notes.
